COPYRIGHT AND RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials. The various state privacy acts govern the use of materials that document private individuals, groups, and corporations.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a reproduction if the document does not infringe the privacy rights of an individual, group, or corporation. These specified conditions of authorized use include:

- non-commercial and non-profit study, scholarship, or research, or teaching
- criticism, commentary, or news reporting
- as a NPS preservation or security copy
- as a research copy for deposit in another institution

If a user later uses a copy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," the user may be personally liable for copyright, privacy, or publicity infringement. This institution's permission to obtain a photographic, xerographic, digital, or other copy of a document doesn't indicate permission to publish, exhibit, perform, reproduce, sell, distribute, or prepare derivative works from this document without first obtaining permission from the copyright holder and from any private individual, group, or corporation shown or otherwise recorded.

Permission to publish, exhibit, perform, reproduce, prepare derivative works from, sell, or otherwise distribute the item must be obtained by the user separately in writing from the holder of the original copyright (or if the creator is dead from his/her heirs) as well as from any individual(s), groups, or corporations whose name, image, recorded words, or private information (e.g., employment information) may be reproduced in the source material. The holder of the original copyright isn't necessarily the National Park Service. The National Park Service is not legally liable for copyright, privacy, or publicity infringement when materials are wrongfully used after being provided to researchers for "fair use."

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if fulfillment of the order is judged in violation of copyright or federal or state privacy or publicity law.

HISTORY

Originally founded around 1745 by laborers in Manchester, England, “Odd-Fellowship” served the purpose of aiding lower class laborers in times of financial hardship; members passed around a hat to collect money to aid a destitute member. In 1813, a schism occurred, thus establishing the Independent Order of Odd Fellows (I.O.O.F.). The I.O.O.F. was brought to the United States in 1819, and lodges were established throughout the country. The Michigan Grand Lodge opened in Detroit in 1843. That year, the American branch of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows split from the English Grand Lodge possibly because the English Grand Lodge chartered the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, which was open to men of African decent. Although the I.O.O.F.’s current membership has significantly declined over the years to about four hundred thousand members reported in 1994, it peaked with approximately 3.5 million members in 1915. It continues to this day as a fraternal organization second only in size to the Freemasons.

Instituted in 1851 by Shuyler Colfax, future vice-president of the United States under Ulysses S. Grant, the Daughters of Rebekah began as a way to incorporate the female relatives of Odd Fellow members. It was not until 1894 that membership restrictions were changed to allow any single white female over the age of eighteen to join. Although men could join a Rebekah lodge if they wished, and usually served as the officers in charge of the lodge, no female could join an Odd Fellow’s lodge or hold an officer’s position in the Rebekah Lodge. Eventually women were allowed to hold officer positions, but the Rebekah Lodges were generally seen only as auxiliaries to the Odd Fellow Lodges and served in a supplementary capacity. While the Daughters of Rebekah Assemblies are still active, their membership has diminished to about two hundred thousand in 1994. There were just over one million members at its peak in 1923.

Calumet Lodge, No. 134 (1870-1994)

Organized in January 1870, the Calumet Lodge started with seventeen members and had grown to over two hundred members by 1883. They met every Tuesday at the Odd Fellows Building, which they owned, at 206 Fifth Street in Red Jacket (later called Calumet), Michigan. In 1994, the Calumet Lodge was forced to close due to declining membership.

Calumet Encampment, No. 77 (1875-ca.1977)

The Calumet Encampment was established on August 18, 1875. An I.O.O.F. Encampment provided three more degrees of Odd Fellowship, after a member had attained all four degrees at the lodge level. The Calumet Encampment began with nineteen charter members. Meetings were held at the Calumet Lodge, No. 134 Odd Fellows Building every second and fourth Friday of the month.

The fifty-ninth annual session of the Grand Encampment of Michigan was hosted by the Calumet Encampment on May 7 & 8, 1907, with the meetings taking place at the Calumet

Theatre and in the Hecla Lodge rooms at the Union Building. This was the first and only time that a session of the Grand Encampment was held in Calumet.

Elizabeth Rebekah Lodge, No. 15 (ca.1875-ca.1979)

The Elizabeth Rebekah Lodge was formed in 1875 or 1879 in Calumet, Michigan. On June 2, 1950, the Lily Rebekah Lodge, No. 384 of Houghton was incorporated into the Elizabeth Rebekah Lodge. The Stella Rebekah Lodge, No. 206 was incorporated into the Elizabeth Lodge in 1975. It appears that the Elizabeth Lodge was discontinued in 1979.

Hecla Lodge, No. 90 (1885-1967)

The Hecla Lodge formed as an offshoot of the Calumet Lodge on January 28, 1885. In 1888, the Hecla Lodge and the Free & Accepted Masons Calumet Lodge, No. 271 formed the Union Building Association to construct a new building, with income-producing commercial space on the ground floor, and lodge halls on the upper floors. The Union Building was built on a lot leased from the Calumet & Hecla Mining Company at the corner of Fifth Street and Red Jacket Road, at the entrance to downtown Calumet. The Hecla Lodge met on Wednesdays and occupied the second floor of the Union Building from its completion in 1889 until 1967. Articles of Association were signed on November 6, 1895, so that the Hecla Lodge could be recognized as a corporate entity and perform business transactions in the community. To increase their revenue, the Hecla Lodge rented out their space in the Union Building to other I.O.O.F. lodges, such as the Stella Rebekah Lodge, or to other fraternal organizations such as the American Order of Foresters Court Robin Hood, No. 6283 of Calumet. Their membership dwindling, the Hecla Lodge was re-incorporated into the Calumet Lodge on June 23, 1967.

Stella Rebekah Lodge, No. 206 (1892-1975)

Started in 1892, the Stella Rebekah Lodge leased the second floor of the Union Building in downtown Calumet from the Hecla Lodge for the purpose of their meetings. It was incorporated into the Elizabeth Rebekah Lodge in 1975.

Keweenaw Lodge, No. 535 (1907-1956)

The Keweenaw Lodge received its charter in 1907 and was located in Ahmeek, Michigan. The lodge was incorporated into the Calumet Lodge on July 10, 1956. Little more is known about the history of the Keweenaw Lodge.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

Independent Order of Odd Fellows records
1870-1994 (bulk dates: 1890-1966)

CATALOG NUMBER KEWE 40005

VOLUME [Count] 1553 [Extent] [Type of Unit] EA.

DESCRIPTION The Independent Order of Odd Fellows records are comprised of books, ledgers, meeting minutes, financial reports, membership information, and various other materials pertaining to the administrative and ceremonial aspects of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges that were part of the Calumet community from 1870 to 1994.

The lodges represented in the collection include the Calumet Lodge, No. 134; the Hecla Lodge, No. 90; the Keweenaw Lodge, No. 535; the Calumet Encampment, No. 77; the Elizabeth Rebekah Lodge, No. 15; and the Stella Rebekah Lodge, No. 206. The Hecla Lodge and Keweenaw Lodge were eventually absorbed into the Calumet Lodge, and the Stella Rebekah Lodge was ultimately integrated into the Elizabeth Rebekah Lodge.

It appears that some records from the other local Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges were acquired by the Calumet Lodge when the other lodges were dissolved.

The strengths of the collection include the membership records and financial records dating from 1870 to 1967. The membership rosters and dues ledgers would be of interest to genealogists for the lists of members. The dues ledgers and membership rosters could also be used by researchers to trace the rise and decline in lodge membership in Calumet, as well as provide insight into other aspects of the social history of the community.

Also included in the collection are the meeting minute books of Calumet Lodge, No. 134; Calumet Encampment, No. 77; and Stella Rebekah Lodge, No. 206 dating from 1875 to 1977. Lesser strengths include a large number of books, the most notable being eight books on the history of the Odd Fellows published from 1867 to 1916, and ceremonial guide books printed from 1895 to 1944.

ORGANIZATION	[Organization]The Independent Order of Odd Fellows records are divided into six series, one for each of the lodges represented in the collection. The six series are organized chronologically based on lodge establishment date. Subseries headings within each series include administration, membership, financial, publications, books, and photographs in that order as applicable. [Arrangement]Materials within each subseries are generally arranged in chronological order; any discrepancies are caused by similar materials from different accessions having a range of dates that somewhat overlap or fill in gaps.
PROVENANCE	The Independent Order of Odd Fellows records are comprised of materials from four different accessions. The primary accession is accession number KEWE-00083, containing material salvaged by Calumet Township from the second floor of the former Odd Fellows Building at 206 Fifth Street. The materials were stored in the Township warehouse, Calumet & Hecla Warehouse #2, until they were donated to Keweenaw National Historical Park on August 1, 2003. Materials from accession number KEWE-00051 were salvaged from the Union Building by former owner Ray Ostermyer. The materials were purchased by Keweenaw National Historical Park from Mr. Ostermyer on August 20, 2002. The lodge records in accession number KEWE-00181 were rescued from the Eagle Harbor Waste Management incinerator by Michael Braman, an employee at the incinerator who recognized the historical significance of the material. Mr. Braman donated the materials to Keweenaw National Historical Park on April 4, 2004. These materials are believed to have been owned by Ray Ostermyer, who moved to Keweenaw County before his death on May 5, 2003. These records complement records from accession number KEWE-00051. The Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodge material from accession number KEWE-00002 were owned by William John (Jack) Foster, who was employed by Calumet & Hecla Mining Company from 1927-1973. As one of the last four members of Calumet Lodge, No. 134, Mr. Foster probably acquired this material when the lodge closed in 1994. Mr. Foster sold his extensive local history collection to Keweenaw National Historical Park in 1999.

Accession number KEWE-00271 consists of an I.O.O.F. ledger donated to Keweenaw National Historical Park on March 22, 2006 by Calumet Township.
